KEY TO SYMBOLS

72H

Most BFI Player screenings will require you to start watching the film within 30 minutes of the advertised start time, but you'll have a little bit longer to commence watching films with either of these icons

96H

AD

Films with an audio-description soundtrack for customers who are blind or partially sighted. Headphones are available on request

OF

Opening Film

HOH

English-language films with English subtitles, including descriptions of non-dialogue audio, for customers who are D/deaf or hard of hearing

CF

Closing Film

ACROSS THE UK

We're all across the UK this year – with exclusive previews playing at cinemas across London and in Belfast, Bristol, Cardiff, Glasgow, Manchester, Nottingham and Sheffield. Head to bfi.org.uk/lff to find your nearest screening.

SUBTITLES

Films not in the English language will be screened with English subtitles (EST). Details are listed on bfi.org.uk/lff and in the film description in the brochure. Please note some films have scenes containing English dialogue without subtitles.

THE BFI LONDON FILM FESTIVAL ANTI-PIRACY POLICY

Unauthorised streaming or recording is prohibited. Cameras are not permitted in venue screenings and recording sound, taking pictures or filming will result in immediate expulsion. Advanced security measures such as forensic and visible watermarking are in place to prevent and track piracy for online screenings, and if caught legal action will be pursued.
